Dear Sir

The newly independent Member for Burnett has taken a new stance on the privatisation of Queensland's public assets and voted with the Government following a debate about stopping the sales.

While Mr Messenger has previously claimed that he opposed the sales, the Member for Burnett stood with Anna Bligh and her Labor team in Parliament on Wednesday night, backing the Government's stance.

This is the second time Mr Messenger has let the people of Burnett down in as many days, with Mr Messenger also choosing to vote against a cut in Compulsory Third Party Insurance charges.

Mr Messenger has promised to stand up for the people of his electorate and put their interests first, but it is becoming clearer with every vote in State Parliament that the people of Burnett have been abandoned by their MP.

Only the LNP and its Members have consistently voted against Anna Bligh and Labor's privatisation agenda and we will continue to fight to save these assets.

Yours sincerely
